(f) cooperation and coordination in international organisations such as the WTO and the WCO, on matters of common interest, including tariff classification, customs valuation and origin, with a view to establishing, if possible, common positions; and

(g) cooperation on enforcement against the trafficking of prohibited goods.

3. The customs authorities of the Parties shall ensure the exchange of information necessary for the purposes of paragraph 2.

ARTICLE 4.13

Temporary admission

For the temporary admission of goods referred to in Article 2.10 and regardless of their origin, each Party shall, in accordance with the procedures laid down in international agreements concerning temporary admissions and applied by the Party, accept A.T.A. carnets[1] issued in the other Party.

[1] "A.T.A. carnet" has the same meaning as in the Customs Convention on the A.T.A. Carnet for the Temporary Admission of Goods, done at Brussels on 6 December 1961 or the Convention on Temporary Admission, done at Istanbul on 26 June 1990.

ARTICLE 4.14

Committee on Rules of Origin and Customs-Related Matters

1. The Committee on Rules of Origin and Customs-Related Matters established pursuant to Article 22.3 (hereinafter referred to in this Chapter as "the Committee") shall be responsible for the effective implementation and operation of this Chapter and the customs-related matters of Chapter 2 and of Article 14.51, in addition to the other responsibilities specified in paragraph 1 of Article 3.28.[1]

2. The Committee shall hold joint meetings with the Joint Customs Co-operation Committee (hereinafter referred to in this Chapter as "the JCCC") established pursuant to the CMAA, unless such joint meetings are not necessary to ensure consistency in the implementation and operation of the provisions referred to in paragraph 1 and in the CMAA.[2]

3. The Parties shall ensure that the composition of their delegations to meetings of the Committee corresponds to the agenda items.

[1] For greater certainty, nothing in this Article shall affect the rights and obligations of the Parties with regard to the Committee on Trade in Goods relating to Chapter 2, nor the Committee on Intellectual Property relating to Chapter 14.

[2] For greater certainty, nothing in this Article shall be construed to prevent the JCCC from holding a meeting solely within the framework of the CMAA.
