2. This Convention shall have effect:

(a) in Japan:

(i) with respect to taxes levied on the basis of a taxable year, for taxes for any taxable years beginning on or after 1 January in the calendar year next following that in which the Convention enters into force; and

(ii) with respect to taxes levied not on the basis of a taxable year, for taxes levied on or after 1 January in the calendar year next following that in which the Convention enters into force; and

(b) in Uzbekistan:

(i) with respect to taxes withheld at source, for income derived on or after 1 January in the calendar year next following that in which the Convention enters into force; and

(ii) with respect to other taxes, for taxes chargeable for any taxable year beginning on or after 1 January in the calendar year next following that in which the Convention enters into force.

3. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 2, the provisions of Articles 25 and 26 shall have effect from the date of entry into force of this Convention without regard to the date on which the taxes are levied or the taxable year to which the taxes relate.

4. The Convention between the Government of Japan and the Government of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics for the Avoidance of Double Taxation with respect to Taxes on Income, with Protocol, signed at Tokyo on 18 January, 1986 (hereinafter referred to as "the prior Convention") shall between Japan and Uzbekistan cease to be applicable from the date upon which this Convention applies in respect of the taxes to which this Convention applies in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs 2 and 3.

5. Notwithstanding the entry into force of this Convention, an individual who is a resident of either Contracting State and entitled to the benefits of Article 17 of the prior Convention at the time of the entry into force of this Convention shall continue to be entitled to such benefits until such time as the individual would have ceased to be entitled to such benefits if the prior Convention had remained in force.

6. The prior Convention shall between Japan and Uzbekistan terminate on the last date on which it applies in accordance with the provisions of the preceding paragraphs of this Article.

ARTICLE 31
TERMINATION

This Convention shall remain in force until terminated by a Contracting State. Either Contracting State may terminate the Convention by giving notice of termination through diplomatic channels to the other Contracting State at least six months before the end of any calendar year beginning after expiry of five years from the date of entry into force of the Convention. In such event, the Convention shall cease to have effect:

(a) in Japan:

(i) with respect to taxes levied on the basis of a taxable year, for taxes for any taxable years beginning on or after 1 January in the calendar year next following that in which the notice is given; and

(ii) with respect to taxes levied not on the basis of a taxable year, for taxes levied on or after 1 January in the calendar year next following that in which the notice is given; and

(b) in Uzbekistan:

(i) with respect to taxes withheld at source, for income derived on or after 1 January in the calendar year next following that in which the notice is given; and

(ii) with respect to other taxes, for taxes chargeable for any taxable year beginning on or after 1 January in the calendar year next following that in which the notice is given.
