(n) any other information that should be brought to the attention of the requested Party to facilitate the execution of the request.

5. If the requested Party considers that the information contained in a request for assistance is not sufficient to meet the requirements under this Treaty to enable the execution of the request, the Central Authority of the requested Party may request that additional information be provided.

Article 5
Execution of requests for assistance

1. The requested Party shall promptly execute a request for assistance in accordance with the relevant provisions of this Treaty. The requested Party shall take every reasonable measure to execute the request.

2. The requested Party shall execute a request in the manner or in accordance with the procedure provided for by the laws of the requested Party. To the extent that it is not contrary to the laws of the requested Party and, if possible, the requested Party shall execute the request in the manner specified in the request.

3. If the execution of a request is deemed to impair the essential interests of the requested Party or to interfere with an ongoing investigation, prosecution or other criminal proceeding in the requested Party, the Central Authority of the requested Party may postpone the execution of the request. The Central Authority of the requested Party shall promptly inform the Central Authority of the requesting Party of the decision to postpone the execution of the request, and shall consult with the Central Authority of the requesting Party when the requested Party considers that the request can be executed subject to certain conditions. If the requesting Party accepts such conditions, the requesting Party shall comply with them.

4. The requested Party shall make best efforts to keep confidential the fact that a request has been made, the contents of a request, the outcome of the execution of a request and other relevant information concerning the execution of a request, if such confidentiality is requested by the Central Authority of the requesting Party.

5. If a request cannot be executed without disclosure of such information, the Central Authority of the requested Party shall so inform the Central Authority of the requesting Party, which shall then determine whether the request should nevertheless be executed.

6. The Central Authority of the requested Party shall respond to reasonable inquiries by the Central Authority of the requesting Party concerning the status of the execution of a request.

7. The Central Authority of the requested Party shall promptly inform the Central Authority of the requesting Party of the result of the execution of a request, and shall provide the Central Authority of the requesting Party with the testimony, statements or items obtained as a result.

8. The requested Party may provide certified true copies of documents or records, or their electronic versions, unless the requesting Party expressly requests originals or paper copies, and explains the reason for requiring the originals or paper copies. The requested Party shall make best efforts to comply with a request for originals or paper copies of the documents or records.

9. To the extent permitted by the laws of the requested Party, the requested Party shall provide items in a form or accompanied by a certification or statement as may be specified by the requesting Party in order to make the items admissible in evidence in criminal proceedings in accordance with the laws of the requesting Party.

10. If a request cannot be executed in whole or in part, the Central Authority of the requested Party shall inform the Central Authority of the requesting Party of the reasons therefor.

Article 6
Costs

1. The requested Party shall bear all costs related to the execution of a request, unless otherwise decided between the Central Authorities of the Parties.
