(i) relating to the supply of services as carried out directly or indirectly for the purpose of provisioning a military establishment;

(ii) relating to fissionable and fusionable materials or the materials from which they are derived;

(iii) taken in time of war or other emergency in international relations; or

(c) to prevent either Party from taking any action in pursuance of its obligations under the United Nations Charter for the maintenance of international peace and security.

Article 57
Lists of Reservations

1. The List of Reservations of the Parties referred to in Articles 45 to 47 shall be set out in Annex III.

2. The List of Reservations of a Party set out in Annex III provides for:

(a) existing measures that the Party may maintain, renew at any time or modify without reducing their level of conformity with Articles 45 to 47; and

(b) measures that the Party may adopt, maintain or modify.

Article 58
Modification of Lists of Reservations

1. A Party shall notify to the other Party its intention to modify its List of Reservations set out in Annex III. Upon written request of the other Party within 30 days from the receipt of the notification, the Parties shall hold consultations on any necessary compensatory adjustment with the aim to ensure that the general level of mutually advantageous commitments under this Chapter is not reduced. If the Parties fail to reach an agreement on compensation within 60 days after the receipt of the request for consultations, the Party receiving the notification may refer the matter to arbitration by an arbitral tribunal established following the same procedures as provided for in paragraphs 3 to 7 of Article 141. Such an arbitral tribunal shall present its findings as to the ways to ensure that the general level of mutually advantageous commitments under this Chapter is not reduced. Article 143 shall apply to the proceedings of such an arbitral tribunal mutatis mutandis.

2. If no consultations are requested, or once the Party which made the notification under paragraph 1 has made compensatory adjustments as agreed upon by the Parties or in conformity with the outcome of arbitration, the modification shall be incorporated into Annex III in accordance with the procedures set out in Article 152.

3. If a compensatory adjustment has been made by a Party to the benefit of the other Party as an "affected Member" in accordance with Article XXI of the GATS with regard to the same modification as intended for the List of Reservations of the former Party set out in Annex III, the Parties shall be deemed to have reached an agreement on compensation referred to in paragraph 1 with the same conclusion as agreed in the said compensatory adjustment.

Article 59
Transparency

1. Each Party shall publish promptly and, except in emergency situations, at the latest by the time of their entry into force, all relevant measures of general application which pertain to or affect the operation of this Chapter. International agreements pertaining to or affecting trade in services to which a Party is a signatory shall also be published.
