2. Where publication as referred to in paragraph 1 is not practicable, such information shall be made otherwise publicly available.

Article 60
Review

1. With the objective of further liberalising trade in services between them, the Parties shall review at least every two years, or more frequently if so agreed, their Lists of Reservations set out in Annex III. The first such review shall take place not later than two years after the entry into force of this Agreement.

2. If, after the entry into force of this Agreement, a Party further liberalises autonomously any of its services sectors, sub-sectors or activities, it shall consider any requests by the other Party for the incorporation into this Agreement of such autonomous liberalisation.

Article 61
Annexes

Annexes III, IV, V, VI and VII form an integral part of this Chapter.

Chapter 7
Movement of Natural Persons

Article 62
Scope

1. This Chapter shall apply to measures affecting the movement of natural persons of a Party who enter and stay temporarily in the other Party.

2. This Chapter shall not apply to measures affecting natural persons of a Party seeking access to the employment market of the other Party, nor shall it apply to measures regarding nationality or citizenship, residence or employment on a permanent basis.

3. This Chapter shall not prevent a Party from applying measures to regulate the entry of natural persons of the other Party into, or their temporary stay in, the former Party, including measures necessary to protect the integrity of, and to ensure the orderly movement of natural persons across, its borders, provided that such measures are not applied in such a manner as to nullify or impair the benefits accruing to the other Party under the terms of the specific commitments set out in Annex VIII.

Note: The sole fact of requiring a visa for natural persons of a certain nationality and not for those of others shall not be regarded as nullifying or impairing benefits under the terms of the specific commitments.

Article 63
General Principles

1. This Chapter reflects the preferential trading relationship between the Parties, the desire of the Parties to facilitate the movement of natural persons on a mutually beneficial basis and to establish transparent criteria and procedures for the movement of natural persons, and the need to ensure border security and to protect the domestic labour force and permanent employment in either Party.

2. Each Party shall apply its measures relating to the provisions of this Chapter in accordance with paragraph 1, and, in particular, shall apply such measures expeditiously so as to avoid unduly impairing or delaying trade in goods or services or conduct of investment activities under this Agreement.
