logging. A concession is required for the regular transport of passengers and freight on the same flight route (SR 748.0, Article 28). In order to obtain such authorisation or concession, an enterprise must have its domicile in Switzerland (SR 748.0, Article 27), be registered in a cantonal Commercial Register and be owned and controlled by a majority of Swiss nationals or Swiss enterprises. The majority of the shares must be registered shares and in Swiss hands (SR 748.01, Article 103).

Enterprises without domicile in Switzerland may obtain such authorisation and concession on the basis of reciprocity, normally pursuant to bilateral air services agreements. Switzerland reserves the right to accord less favourable treatment to services or service suppliers of Japan than that accorded to like services or service suppliers of any other country (SR 748.0, Articles 29, 30; SR 748.01, Article 108; SR 0.748).

Commercial transport services of passengers or freight between points within the territory of Switzerland (cabotage), as well as rental services of aircraft with operator, must be supplied by Swiss enterprises exclusively, unless international agreements stipulate otherwise. Switzerland reserves the right to accord less favourable treatment to services or service suppliers of Japan than that accorded to like services or service suppliers of any other country, normally pursuant to bilateral air services agreements (SR 748.0, Article 32; SR 0.748).

Aerial advertising is prohibited (SR 748.01, Article 83).
