by or affiliated with the aforementioned public or private organisation; and

(c) engages in one of the following activities during his temporary stay in Japan:

(i) activities to direct a branch or representative office as its head;

(ii) activities to direct a public or private organisation as its board member or auditor;

(iii) activities to direct one or more departments of a public or private organisation;

(iv) activities which require technology or knowledge at an advanced level pertinent to physical sciences, engineering or other natural sciences, recognised under the status of residence of "Engineer" provided for in the Immigration Control and Refugee Recognition Act of Japan (Cabinet Order No. 319 of 1951); or

(v) activities which require knowledge at an advanced level pertinent to human sciences, including jurisprudence, economics, business management and accounting, or which require ideas and sensitivity based on culture of a country other than Japan, recognised under the status of residence of "Specialist in Humanities/International Services" provided for in the Immigration Control and Refugee Recognition Act of Japan.

Note: For the purposes of this Appendix, a public or private organisation is "affiliated" with another public or private organisation when the latter can significantly affect the decision making of the former on the finance and business policy.

2. Activities which require technology or knowledge at an advanced level pertinent to natural or human sciences referred to in subparagraph 1(c)(iv) or (v) mean activities in which the natural person may not be able to engage without the application of specialised technology or knowledge of natural or human sciences acquired by him or her, in principle, by completing college education (i.e. bachelor's degree) or higher education.
