	Description:	Any existing non-conforming measure that is maintained, continued or renewed at any time by local governments other than prefectures is reserved by Japan. Japan shall take such reasonable measures as may be available to it to increase the conformity with the relevant provisions of Chapter 9 of the existing non-conforming measures by such local governments.

Section 2
List of Reservations Referred to in Subparagraph 1(c) of Article 90

1. This List of Reservations sets out, pursuant to subparagraph 1(c) of Article 90, the reservations taken by Japan with respect to specific sectors, sub-sectors or activities for which it may maintain existing, or adopt new or more restrictive, measures that do not conform with obligations imposed by;

(a) Article 87;

(b) Article 88; or

(c) Article 96.

2. Each reservation sets out the following elements:

(a) "Sector" refers to the general sector in which the reservation is taken;

(b) "Sub-Sector" refers to the specific sector in which the reservation is taken;

(c) "Industry Classification" refers, where applicable, and only for transparency purposes, to the activity covered by the reservation according to domestic or international industry classification codes;

(d) "Type of Reservation" specifies the obligations referred to in paragraph 1 for which the reservation is taken;

(e) "Description" sets out the scope of the sector, sub-sector or activities covered by the reservation; and

(f) "Existing Measures" identifies, for transparency purposes, existing measures that apply to the sector, sub-sector or activities covered by the reservation.

3. In the interpretation of a reservation, all of its elements shall be considered. The "Description" element shall prevail over all other elements.

4. For the purposes of this Section, "JSIC" means Japan Standard Industrial Classification set out by the Ministry of Internal Affairs and Communications, and revised on November 6, 2007.
