Article 11

The requested Party shall make its best efforts to locate or identify persons, items or places.

Article 12

1. The requested Party shall provide the requesting Party with items that are in the possession of the authorities of the requested Party and are available to the general public.

2. The requested Party shall endeavour to provide the requesting Party with items that are in the possession of the authorities of the requested Party and are not available to the general public, to the same extent and under the same conditions as such items would be available to its investigative and prosecuting authorities.

Article 13

The requested Party shall present an invitation to a person in the requested Party whose appearance before the appropriate authority in the requesting Party is sought. The Central Authority of the requesting Party shall inform the Central Authority of the requested Party of the extent to which the allowances and expenses for such appearance will be paid by the requesting Party. The Central Authority of the requested Party shall promptly inform the Central Authority of the requesting Party of the response of the person.

Article 14

1. A person in the custody of the requested Party whose presence within the jurisdiction of the requesting Party is necessary for giving testimony or otherwise assisting in investigations, prosecutions or other proceedings shall be transferred for those purposes to the requesting Party, if the person consents and if the Central Authorities of the Parties agree, where permitted under the laws of the requested Party.

2. (1) The requesting Party shall keep the person transferred pursuant to paragraph 1 in the custody of the requesting Party, unless permitted by the requested Party to do otherwise.

(2) The requesting Party shall immediately return the person transferred to the requested Party, as agreed beforehand, or as otherwise agreed between the Central Authorities of the Parties.

(3) The person transferred shall receive credit for service of the sentence imposed in the requested Party for the time served in the custody of the requesting Party.

Article 15

1. A person who consents to appear before the appropriate authority in the requesting Party under Article 13 or a person who consents to be transferred to the requesting Party under Article 14 shall not be subject to prosecution, detention or any restriction of personal liberty within its jurisdiction by reason of any conduct or conviction that precedes the departure from the requested Party of that person, nor shall that person be obliged to give evidence in any proceeding or to assist in any investigation other than the proceeding or investigation which is specified in the request.

2. (1) The safe conduct provided in accordance with paragraph 1 to the person who consents to appear before the appropriate authority in the requesting Party under Article 13 shall cease when:

(a) the person, having had an opportunity to leave, has nevertheless remained in the requesting Party for a period of fifteen (15) consecutive days after the date of notification by the appropriate authority that the appearance of that person is no longer necessary;

(b) the person, having left the requesting Party, voluntarily returns to it; or

(c) the person fails to appear before the appropriate authority on the scheduled appearance date unless there are compelling reasons.

(2) When the notification is made pursuant to sub-paragraph (1)(a), or when the safe conduct ceases pursuant to sub-paragraph (1)(b) or (1)(c), the Central Authority of the requesting Party shall so inform the Central Authority of the requested Party without delay.
