1. Each Party shall set out in its Schedule the specific commitments it undertakes under Articles 59, 60, and 61. With respect to sectors or sub-sectors where such specific commitments are undertaken, the Party's Schedule of Specific Commitments in Annex 5 shall specify:

(a) terms, limitations and conditions on market access;

(b) conditions and qualifications on national treatment;

(c) undertakings relating to additional commitments; and

(d) where appropriate, the time-frame for implementation of such commitments.

2. Measures inconsistent with both Articles 59 and 60 shall be inscribed in the column relating to Article 59. In this case the inscription will be considered to provide a condition or qualification to Article 60 as well.

Article 63
Most-Favored-Nation Treatment

1. Unless otherwise specified in Annex 6, each Party shall accord to services and service suppliers of the other Party treatment no less favorable than that it accords to like services and service suppliers of any non-Party.

2. Treatment granted under other agreements concluded by a Party and notified under Article V or Article V bis of the GATS shall not be subject to paragraph 1.

3. If, after this Agreement enters into force, a Party concludes or amends an agreement of the type referred to in paragraph 2 with a non-Party, it shall provide the other Party an opportunity to consult on the possibility of according treatment no less favorable than that granted to services and service suppliers of the non-Party under that agreement to like services and service suppliers of that other Party.

Article 64
Modification of Schedules

1. Any modification or withdrawal of specific commitments on trade in services shall be made in accordance with paragraph 1 of Article 127. In the negotiations for such modification or withdrawal, the Parties shall endeavor, in line with subparagraph 2(a) of Article XXI of the GATS, to maintain a general level of mutually advantageous commitments not less favorable to trade than that provided for in their Schedules of Specific Commitments in Annex 5 prior to such negotiations.

2. With regard to the same commitment that appears in a Party's Schedule of Specific Commitments under both the GATS and this Agreement, if modification or withdrawal has been made to such commitment with regard to its Schedule of Specific Commitments under the GATS and compensatory adjustment has been made to the other Party as an "affected Member" in accordance with Article XXI of the GATS, the Parties shall agree to amend this Agreement to incorporate such modification or withdrawal into it without further negotiation, subject to their applicable domestic procedures.

Article 65
Qualifications, Technical Standards, and Licensing

With a view to ensuring that measures by a Party relating to qualification requirements and procedures, technical standards, and licensing requirements of service suppliers of the other Party do not constitute unnecessary barriers to trade in services, each Party shall endeavor to ensure that such measures:

(a) are based on objective and transparent criteria, such as competence and the ability to supply the service;

(b) are not more burdensome than necessary to ensure the quality of the service; and

(c) in the case of licensing procedures, are not in themselves a restriction on the supply of the service.

Article 66
Recognition

1. A Party may recognize the education or experience obtained, requirements met, or licenses or certifications granted in the other Party for the purposes of the fulfillment, in whole or in part, of its standards or criteria for the authorization, licensing, or certification of service suppliers of the other Party.

2. Recognition referred to in paragraph 1, which may be achieved through harmonization or otherwise, may be based upon an agreement or arrangement between the Parties or may be accorded unilaterally.

3. Where a Party recognizes, by agreement or arrangement between the Party and a non-Party or unilaterally, the education or experience obtained, requirements met, or licenses or certifications granted in the non-Party:

(a) nothing in Article 63 shall be construed to require the Party to accord such recognition to the education or experience obtained, requirements met, or licenses or certifications granted in the other Party;
