(i) simple mixing of products whether or not of different kinds;

(j) simple assembly of parts of goods to constitute a complete product;

(k) slaughter of animals;

(l) mere dilution with water or another substance that does not materially alter the characteristics of the goods; or

(m) any combination of operations referred to in subparagraphs (a) through (l).

Note: For the purposes of this Article, an operation is described as "simple" if neither special skills nor machines, apparatus or equipment especially produced or installed for carrying it out are needed.

Article 34
Consignment Criteria

1. An originating good of the other Party shall be deemed to meet the consignment criteria when it is:

(a) transported directly from the other Party; or

(b) transported through one or more non-Parties for the purpose of transit or temporary storage in warehouses in such non-Parties, provided that it does not undergo operations other than unloading, reloading and any other operation to preserve it in good condition.

2. If an originating good of the other Party does not meet the consignment criteria referred to in paragraph 1, the good shall not be considered as an originating good of the other Party.

Article 35
Unassembled or Disassembled Goods

Where a good satisfies the requirements of the relevant provisions of Articles 27 through 33 and is imported into a Party from the other Party in an unassembled or disassembled form but is classified as an assembled good pursuant to Rule 2(a) of the General Rules for the Interpretation of the Harmonized System, such a good shall be considered as an originating good of the other Party.

Article 36
Fungible Goods and Materials

1. For the purposes of determining whether a good qualifies as an originating good of a Party, where fungible originating materials of the Party and fungible non-originating materials that are mixed in an inventory are used in the production of the good, the origin of the materials may be determined pursuant to an inventory management method under the Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in the Party.

2. Where fungible originating goods of a Party and fungible non-originating goods are mixed in an inventory and, prior to exportation do not undergo any production process or any operation in the Party where they were mixed other than unloading, reloading or any other operation to preserve them in good condition, the origin of the good may be determined pursuant to an inventory management method under the Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in the Party.

Article 37
Indirect Materials

Indirect materials shall be, without regard to where they are produced, considered to be originating materials of a Party where the good is produced.
