2. To the extent possible, each Party shall allow reasonable time between the date of the publication through electronic or other means of regulations affecting the entry and temporary stay of natural persons of the other Party and their effective date.

3. On the date of entry into force of this Agreement, each Party shall exchange information on procedures relating to the processing of applications for entry and temporary stay which exist at that date. Each Party shall also, without undue delay, provide the other Party updates of information on procedures relating to the processing of applications for entry and temporary stay.

4. Each Party shall notify natural persons of the other Party, regarding the application for entry and temporary stay, either directly or through their prospective employers, of its final determination, including the period of temporary stay and conditions thereof.

5. Each Party shall endeavour, to the maximum extent possible, to take measures to simplify the requirements and to facilitate and expedite the procedures relating to the movement of natural persons of the other Party within the framework of its laws and regulations.

Article 78
General Principles for Grant of Entry and Temporary Stay and Related Issues

1. Each Party shall process without delay applications for entry and temporary stay from natural persons of the other Party, including requests for further extensions of the temporary stay.

2. The Parties shall hold consultations on the feasibility of concluding a social security agreement. After such consultations, the Parties shall enter into negotiations in order to complete the consultations and negotiations within 36 months after the commencement of the consultations or the date of entry into force of this Agreement, whichever comes earlier.

Article 79
Accompanying Spouse and Dependent

Each Party shall ensure that spouse or dependent who accompanies a natural person of the other Party granted entry and temporary stay pursuant to paragraph 1 of Article 76 shall be allowed to work through change of the status of residence, provided that such spouse or dependent fulfils requirements under its laws and regulations. The Parties agree that spouse or dependent shall not be barred from working solely on the ground that he or she has accompanied a natural person of the other Party.

Note: For the purposes of this Article, the term "spouse" or "dependent" means spouse or dependent recognised as such in accordance with the laws and regulations of the other Party.

Article 80
Dispute Settlement

1. The dispute settlement procedures provided for in Chapter 14 shall not apply to this Chapter unless:

(a) the matter involves a pattern of practice; and

(b) the natural persons of a Party affected by that matter have exhausted the available domestic administrative remedies of the other Party.

2. The remedies referred to in subparagraph 1(b) shall be deemed to be exhausted if a final determination in the matter has not been issued by the competent authority of the other Party within one year after the date of the institution of the administrative remedy, and the failure to issue such a determination is not attributable to the delay caused by the natural person.

Article 81
Reservations

The commitments made by each Party under this Chapter shall be subject to any terms, limitations, conditions and qualifications which the Party specified in its Schedule of Specific Commitments in Annex 6.
