2. Each Party shall ensure, to the extent provided for in its laws and regulations that any supplier of public telecommunications transport networks or services aggrieved by the determination or decision of the relevant telecommunications regulatory body or dispute resolution body may petition that body for reconsideration of that determination or decision. Neither Party may permit such a petition to constitute grounds for non-compliance with such determination or decision of the said body unless an appropriate authority suspends, withdraws or stays such determination or decision.

3. Each party shall ensure that any supplier of public telecommunications transport networks or services aggrieved by a determination or decision of the relevant telecommunications regulatory body has the opportunity to appeal such determination or decision to an independent judicial or administrative authority.

Section 16
Transparency

Each Party shall ensure that relevant information on conditions affecting access to and use of public telecommunications transport networks and services is publicly available, including:

(a) tariffs and other terms and conditions of service;

(b) specifications of technical interfaces with such networks and services;

(c) information on bodies responsible for the preparation and adoption of standards affecting such access and use;

(d) conditions applying to attachment of terminal or other equipment; and

(e) notifications, registration or licensing requirements, if any.

Section 17
Unsolicited Commercial E-mail

1. Each Party may take appropriate and necessary measures to regulate unsolicited commercial e-mail for advertising purposes in accordance with its laws and regulations.

2. Each Party shall endeavour to provide the other Party with information, including its related laws, regulations and best practices, in relation to the fight against unsolicited commercial e-mail for advertising purposes.
