(b) activities which require knowledge at an advanced level pertinent to human science, including jurisprudence, economics, business management and accounting, or which require ideas and sensitivity based on culture of a country other than Japan, under the status of residence of "Specialist in Humanities/International Services", whose scope is provided for in the Immigration Control and Refugee Recognition Act; or

(c) activities which require specialised skills relating to Indian cuisine under the status of residence of "Skilled Labour", whose scope is provided for in the Immigration Control and Refugee Recognition Act.

2. Entry and temporary stay referred to in paragraph 1 shall be granted, provided that:

(a) a service contract between a public or private organisation in Japan (hereinafter referred to in this Section as "the Japanese organisation") and the Indian organisation has been concluded; and

(b) it is recognised, in the context of the service contract referred to in subparagraph (a), that a labour contract between the natural person and the Japanese organisation has been concluded.

3. Activities which require technology or knowledge at an advanced level pertinent to natural or human sciences referred to in paragraph 1 mean activities in which the natural person may not be able to engage without the application of specialised technology or knowledge of natural or human sciences acquired by him or her, by, in principle, completing college education (i.e. bachelor's degree) or higher education.

Note 1: Activities defined in subparagraph 1(a) include those related to services listed in the Appendix 1 to this Part and those defined in subparagraph 1(b) include those listed in the Appendix 2 to this Part. The application for entry and temporary stay in connection with subparagraphs 1(a) and (b) will be examined in accordance with the provisions of those subparagraphs.

Note 2: The service contract for the placement and supply services of personnel (CPC872) shall be excluded from the service contract referred to in subparagraph 2(a).

Note 3: Such a labour contract as referred to in subparagraph 2(b) shall comply with the relevant laws and regulations of Japan.

Section 7
Instructors of India

Entry and temporary stay for a period of one or three years, which may be extended, shall be granted to a natural person of India who engages in one of the following activities during his or her temporary stay in Japan under the status of residence of "Instructor", whose scope is provided for in the Immigration Control and Refugee Recognition Act:

(a) activities to teach Indian Yoga;

(b) activities to teach Indian cuisine;

(c) activities to teach Indian classical music and dance; or

(d) activities to teach English language.
