6. (a) Notwithstanding that a resident of a Contracting State may not be a qualified person, that resident shall be entitled to the benefits granted by the provisions of paragraph 3 of Article 10, subparagraph (c), (d) or (e) of paragraph 3 of Article 11, Article 12, paragraph 6 of Article 13 or Article 22 with respect to an item of income described in those subparagraphs, paragraphs or Articles derived from the other Contracting State if:

(i) that resident is carrying on business in the first-mentioned Contracting State (other than the business of making or managing investments for the resident's own account, unless the business is banking, insurance or securities business carried on by a bank, insurance company or securities dealer);

(ii) the item of income derived from the other Contracting State is derived in connection with, or is incidental to, that business; and

(iii) that resident satisfies any other specified conditions in those subparagraphs, paragraphs or Articles for the obtaining of such benefits.

(b) If a resident of a Contracting State derives an item of income from a business carried on by that resident in the other Contracting State or derives an item of income arising in the other Contracting State from a person that has with the resident a relationship described in subparagraph (a) or (b) of paragraph 1 of Article 9, the conditions described in subparagraph (a) of this paragraph shall be considered to be satisfied with respect to such item of income only if the business carried on in the first-mentioned Contracting State is substantial in relation to the business carried on in the other Contracting State. Whether such business is substantial for the purposes of this paragraph shall be determined on the basis of all the facts and circumstances.

(c) In determining whether a person is carrying on business in a Contracting State under subparagraph (a) of this paragraph, the business conducted by a partnership in which that person is a partner and the business conducted by persons connected to such person shall be deemed to be conducted by such person. A person shall be connected to another if that person owns, directly or indirectly, shares or beneficial interests representing at least 50 per cent of the capital or of the voting power of the other person, or a third person owns, directly or indirectly, shares or beneficial interests representing at least 50 per cent of the capital or of the voting power of each person. In any case, a person shall be considered to be connected to another if, on the basis of all the facts and circumstances, one has control of the other or both are under the control of the same person or persons.

7. A resident of a Contracting State that is neither a qualified person nor entitled under paragraph 3, 5 or 6 to the benefits granted by the provisions of paragraph 3 of Article 10, subparagraph (c), (d) or (e) of paragraph 3 of Article 11, Article 12, paragraph 6 of Article 13 or Article 22 with respect to an item of income described in those subparagraphs, paragraphs or Articles shall, nevertheless, be granted such benefits if the competent authority of the other Contracting State determines, in accordance with the laws or administrative practice of that other Contracting State, that the establishment, acquisition or maintenance of such resident and the conduct of the operations of such resident are considered as not having the obtaining of such benefits as one of the principal purposes.

8. For the purposes of this Article:

(a) the term "qualified governmental entity" means the Government of a Contracting State, any political subdivision or local authority thereof, the Bank of Japan, the Swiss National Bank or a person a majority of the capital of which is owned, directly or indirectly, by the Government of a Contracting State or a political subdivision or local authority thereof;
