Note: For the purposes of this paragraph, "consular transactions" means requirements by the consul of the importing Party located in the exporting Party for the purpose of obtaining consular invoices or consular visas for commercial invoices, certificates of origin, manifests, shippers' export declarations, or any other customs documentation required on or in connection with importation.

3. Each Party shall make available on its websites details of fees and charges that it imposes on or in connection with importation or exportation of goods as soon as possible.

Article 25
Export Duties, Fees or Other Charges

Neither Party shall introduce or maintain any duties, fees or other charges of any kind imposed on a good exported from the Party into the other Party, unless such duties, fees or other charges are not in excess of those imposed on the like good destined for domestic consumption.

Article 26
Customs Valuation

For the purposes of determining the customs value of goods traded between the Parties, the provisions of the Agreement on Implementation of Article VII of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade 1994 in Annex 1A to the WTO Agreement (hereinafter referred to as "Agreement on Customs Valuation"), which is hereby incorporated into and made part of this Agreement, mutatis mutandis, shall apply.

Article 27
Agricultural Export Subsidies

1. Neither Party shall introduce, maintain or reintroduce any export subsidies on any agricultural good which is listed in Annex 1 to the Agreement on Agriculture and exported to the other Party.

2. If either Party considers that the other Party has failed to carry out its obligations under this Agreement by introducing, maintaining or reintroducing an export subsidy, such Party may request consultations with the other Party according to Chapter 15 with a view to arriving at a mutually satisfactory solution, in particular, agreeing on specific measures that the importing Party may adopt to counter the effect of such subsidized imports.

Article 28
Price Band System

Peru may maintain its Price Band System referred to in Note 2 of Section 1 of the Schedule of Peru in Annex 1 with respect to the agricultural goods specified with one asterisk ("*") in column 5 of its Schedule.

Section 2
Safeguard Measures

Article 29
General Provisions

1. Each Party retains its rights and obligations under Article XIX of the GATT 1994, the Agreement on Safeguards and Article 5 of the Agreement on Agriculture.

2. A Party applying a safeguard measure to the importation of an originating good of the other Party in accordance with Article XIX of the GATT 1994 and the Agreement on Safeguards, or Article 5 of the Agreement on Agriculture, shall not apply at the same time a bilateral safeguard measure under this Section to that importation.
