(c) spare parts and goods used in the maintenance of equipment and buildings;

(d) lubricants, greases, compounding materials and other goods used in production or used to operate equipment and buildings;

(e) gloves, glasses, footwear, clothing, safety equipment and supplies;

(f) equipment, devices and supplies used for testing or inspecting the good;

(g) catalysts and solvents; and

(h) any other goods that are not incorporated into another good but whose use in the production of the good can reasonably be demonstrated to be a part of that production.

Article 52
Consignment Criteria

1. An originating good of a Party shall be deemed to meet the consignment criteria when it is transported:

(a) directly from the exporting Party to the importing Party without passing through a non-Party; or

(b) from the exporting Party to the importing Party through one or more non-Parties for the purpose of transit, transshipment or temporary storage in warehouses in such non-Parties, provided that:

(i) it does not undergo operations other than unloading, reloading and any other operation to preserve it in good condition; and

(ii) the good remains under control of the customs authorities in such non-Parties.

2. If an originating good of a Party does not meet the consignment criteria referred to in paragraph 1, that good shall no longer be considered as an originating good of the Party.

Article 53
Proofs of Origin

For the purposes of this Chapter, the following documents shall be considered as Proofs of Origin:

(a) a Certificate of Origin referred to in Article 54; and

(b) an origin declaration referred to in Article 57.

Article 54
Certificate of Origin

1. A Certificate of Origin shall be issued by the competent authority of the exporting Party on application having been made by the exporter or, under the exporter's responsibility, by his authorized representative.

2. For the purposes of this Article, the competent authority of the exporting Party may designate, under the authorization given in accordance with the applicable laws and regulations of that Party, certification bodies for the issuance of a Certificate of Origin.

3. Each Party shall establish its form for the Certificate of Origin, which shall conform to the specimen provided for in Annex 4. The Certificate of Origin shall be completed in English by the exporter or, under the exporter's responsibility, by his authorized representative in accordance with the instructions provided for in the Overleaf Note for the Certificate of Origin in Annex 4.

4. A Certificate of Origin shall be issued by the time of shipment, except as provided for in Article 55.

5. The exporter applying for the issuance of a Certificate of Origin for a good shall be prepared to submit at any time, at the request of the competent authority of the exporting Party or its certification bodies which issue the Certificate of Origin, all appropriate documents proving that the good qualifies as an originating good of the exporting Party.
