(i) for checking of the information, including documents, relating to the clearance of goods prior to the arrival of goods to be imported; and

(ii) for allowing goods to be released for importation without being placed in customs warehouses as soon as its customs authority has examined them or decided not to examine them, provided that:

(A) no offence has been found;

(B) the import license or any other documents required have been acquired;

(C) all permits relating to the customs procedures concerned have been acquired; and

(D) any duties and taxes have been paid or that appropriate action has been taken to ensure their collection.

Article 80
Separate and Expedited Customs Procedures for Shipment

Each Party shall adopt or maintain separate and expedited customs procedures for shipment. Such procedures shall provide a simplified clearance of goods after submission of all the necessary customs documents in accordance with the laws and regulations of each Party.

Article 81
Advance Rulings

The importing Party shall adopt or maintain, in accordance with its laws and regulations, procedures of advance ruling that is issued prior to the importation of a good, concerning the tariff classification of the good, the customs valuation of the good and the qualification of the good as an originating good of the exporting Party under the provisions of Chapter 3, where a written application is made with all the necessary information by importers of the good or their authorized representatives, or exporters or producers of the good in the exporting Party or their authorized representatives and the importing Party has no reasonable grounds to deny the issuance.

Article 82
Review

Each Party shall, in relation to any decision concerning customs matters taken by the Party, provide affected parties with easily accessible processes of administrative and judicial review. Such review shall be independent of the official or office making the decision.

Article 83
Customs Cooperation and Exchange of Information

1. The Parties shall cooperate and exchange information with each other in the field of customs procedures within the available resources of their respective customs authorities. Such cooperation and exchange of information include mutual administrative assistance and technical assistance.

2. Cooperation and exchange of information pursuant to paragraph 1 shall be implemented as provided for in the Implementing Agreement.

3. Paragraph 1 of Article 7 shall not apply to the exchange of information under this Article.
