Article 2.3
National Treatment

Each Party shall accord national treatment to the goods of the other Party in accordance with Article III of the GATT 1994. To this end, Article III of the GATT 1994 is incorporated into and made a part of this Agreement, mutatis mutandis.

Article 2.4
Elimination or Reduction of Customs Duties

1. Except as otherwise provided for in this Agreement, each Party shall eliminate or reduce its customs duties on originating goods of the other Party in accordance with its Schedule in Annex 1 (Schedules in Relation to Article 2.4 (Elimination or Reduction of Customs Duties)).

2. On request of either Party, the Parties shall negotiate on issues such as improving market access conditions on originating goods designated for negotiation in the Schedules in Annex 1 (Schedules in Relation to Article 2.4 (Elimination or Reduction of Customs Duties)), in accordance with the terms and conditions set out in such Schedules.

3. If, as a result of the elimination or reduction of its customs duty applied on a particular good on a most-favoured-nation basis, the most-favoured-nation applied rate becomes equal to, or lower than, the rate of customs duty to be applied in accordance with paragraph 1 on the originating good which is classified under the same tariff line as that particular good, each Party shall notify the other Party of such elimination or reduction without delay.

4. In cases where its most-favoured-nation applied rate of customs duty on a particular good is lower than the rate of customs duty to be applied in accordance with paragraph 1 on the originating good which is classified under the same tariff line as that particular good, each Party shall apply the lower rate with respect to that originating good.

Article 2.5
Customs Valuation

Each Party shall determine the customs value of goods traded between the Parties in accordance with Part I of the Agreement on Customs Valuation.

Article 2.6
Export Duties

Neither Party shall adopt or maintain any duties on a good exported from the Party into the other Party, unless such duties are not in excess of those imposed on the like good destined for domestic consumption.

Article 2.7
Export Subsidies

Neither Party shall introduce or maintain any export subsidy on any good destined for the other Party.

Article 2.8
Non-Tariff Measures

1. Neither Party shall adopt or maintain any non-tariff measures, including quantitative restrictions, on the importation of any good of the other Party or on the exportation or sale for export of any good destined for the other Party, except in accordance with its rights and obligations under the WTO Agreement or as otherwise provided for in this Agreement.

2. Each Party shall ensure the transparency of its non-tariff measures permitted under paragraph 1, including quantitative restrictions, and shall ensure that any such measures are not prepared, adopted or applied with the view to, or with the effect of, creating unnecessary obstacles to trade between the Parties.
