6 Sector: Security Services

Obligations Concerned: National Treatment

Level of Government: Regional

Source of Measure: Security Industry Act 1997 (NSW)

Description: New South Wales

A person must be an Australian citizen or an Australian permanent resident to obtain a licence to carry on a security activity in New South Wales.

7 Sector: All Sectors

Obligations Concerned: Local Presence (Article 9.6)

Level of Government: Regional

Source of Measure: Consumer Affairs and Fair Trading Act (NT)
Consumer Affairs and Fair Trading (Trading Stamps) Regulations (NT)

Description: Northern Territory

A promoter of a third party trading scheme[10] must maintain an office in Australia.

[10] The term "third party trading scheme" means a scheme or arrangement under which the acquisition of goods or services by a consumer from a supplier is a condition, which gives rise, or apparently gives rise, to an entitlement to a benefit from a third party in the form of goods or services or some discount, concession or advantage in connection with the acquisition of goods or services.