(b) adopts or maintains measures regarding the non-Party that:

(i) prohibit transactions with the juridical person; or

(ii) would be violated or circumvented if the benefits of this Chapter were accorded to the juridical person.

2. Subject to prior notification and consultation, a Party may deny the benefits of this Chapter to a service supplier of the other Party that is a juridical person of the other Party, where the denying Party establishes that the juridical person is owned or controlled by persons of a non-Party and has no substantial business activities in the Area of the other Party.

Article 7.16
Sub-Committee on Trade in Services

1. For the purposes of the effective implementation and operation of this Chapter, the Parties hereby establish a Sub-Committee on Trade in Services (hereinafter referred to in this Article as "the Sub-Committee").

2. The functions of the Sub-Committee shall be:

(a) reviewing and monitoring the implementation and operation of this Chapter;

(b) discussing any issues related to this Chapter;

(c) reporting the findings of the Sub-Committee to the Joint Committee; and

(d) carrying out other functions as may be delegated by the Joint Committee.

3. The Sub-Committee shall be composed of representatives of the Governments of the Parties.

4. The Sub-Committee shall hold meetings at such times and venues or by means, as may be agreed by the Parties.

Article 7.17
Review of Commitments

1. With the objective of further liberalizing trade in services between the Parties, including the possibility of renegotiating the format of schedules, the Parties shall consider in due course undertaking a review of this Chapter and the Annexes referred to therein on occasions as may be agreed by the Parties.

2. If, after the entry into force of this Agreement, a Party has undertaken further liberalization autonomously in any of the services sectors, sub-sectors or activities, it shall consider in due course requests from the other Party to incorporate such liberalization into this Agreement.
