(b) a statement indicating how much of the sentence has already been served, including information on any pre-trial detention, remission, and any other factor relevant to the enforcement of the sentence;

(c) a statement containing the consent to the transfer as referred to in sub-paragraph (d), paragraph 1 of Article 3; and

(d) whenever appropriate, any medical or social reports on the sentenced person, information about his or her treatment in the sentencing State, and any recommendation for his or her further treatment in the administering State.

3. Either State may ask to be provided with any of the documents or statements referred to in paragraph 1 or 2 above before making a request for transfer or taking a decision on whether or not to agree to the transfer.

Article 8
Consent and its verification

1. The sentencing State shall ensure that the sentenced person who gives consent to the transfer in accordance with sub-paragraph (d), paragraph 1 of Article 3 does so voluntarily and with full knowledge of the legal consequences thereof. The procedure for giving such consent shall be governed by the law of the sentencing State.

2. The sentencing State shall afford an opportunity to the administering State to verify through a consul or other official designated by the administering State, that the consent is given in accordance with the conditions set out in paragraph 1 above.

Article 9
Effect of transfer for sentencing State

1. The taking into charge of the sentenced person by the authorities of the administering State shall have the effect of suspending the enforcement of the sentence in the sentencing State.

2. The sentencing State may no longer enforce the sentence if the administering State considers enforcement of the sentence to have been completed.

Article 10
Effect of transfer for administering State

1. The administering State shall continue the enforcement of the sentence by taking necessary measures in accordance with its laws and regulations.

2. The continued enforcement of the sentence after the transfer shall be governed by the laws and regulations of the administering State, including those governing conditions for service of imprisonment or other form of deprivation of liberty and those providing for the reduction of the term of imprisonment or other form of deprivation of liberty by parole or otherwise.

3. The administering State shall be bound by the legal nature and duration of the sentence as determined by the sentencing State.

4. If, however, this sentence is by its nature or duration incompatible with the law of the administering State, or its law so requires, that State may, by taking necessary measures in accordance with its laws and regulations, adapt the sanction imposed in the sentencing State to a sanction prescribed by its own law for a similar offence. As to its nature and duration, the adapted sanction shall, as far as possible, correspond with the sanction imposed in the sentencing State. It shall not be severer than that imposed in the sentencing State, in terms of nature and duration.

Article 11
Pardon, amnesty, commutation

Each Party may grant pardon, amnesty or commutation of the sentence in accordance with its Constitution, laws and regulations.

Article 12
Review of judgment

The sentencing State alone shall have the right to decide on any application for review of the judgment.

Article 13
Termination of enforcement

The administering State shall terminate enforcement of the sentence as soon as it is informed by the sentencing State of any decision or measure as a result of which the sentence ceases to be enforceable.
