(b) unjustifiably differentiating among customers, such as large volume mailers or consolidators, where like conditions prevail with respect to charges and the provisions concerning acceptance, delivery, redirection, return and the number of days required for delivery for the supply of a service subject to a universal service obligation.

ARTICLE 8.38

Border procedures

1. The border procedures for international postal services and international courier services[1] are enforced in accordance with related international agreements and the laws and regulations of each Party.

2. Without prejudice to paragraph 1, each Party shall not unduly accord less favourable treatment with respect to border procedures to international courier services than it accords to international postal services.

ARTICLE 8.39

Licences

1. Each Party may require a licence for the supply of a service covered by this Sub-Section.

2. If a Party requires a licence, it shall make publicly available:

(a) all the licensing criteria and the period of time normally required to reach a decision concerning an application for a licence; and

(b) the terms and conditions of licences.
