(c) a requirement that a Party adopts or maintains relating to access to networks, including user devices, that are owned or controlled by that Party, including those of central banks;

(d) measures by a Party adopted or maintained pursuant to supervisory, investigatory or examination authority relating to financial service suppliers or financial markets; or

(e) the manufacture, sale, distribution, import or use of a commercial ICT product that uses cryptography by or for a Party.

CHAPTER 9

CAPITAL MOVEMENTS, PAYMENTS AND TRANSFERS
AND TEMPORARY SAFEGUARD MEASURES

ARTICLE 9.1

Current account

Without prejudice to other provisions of this Agreement, each Party shall allow, in freely convertible currency[1], and in accordance with the Articles of Agreement of the International Monetary Fund, as applicable, any payments and transfers with regard to transactions on the current account of the balance of payments which fall within the scope of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 9.2

Capital movements

1. Without prejudice to other provisions of this Agreement, each Party shall allow, with regard to transactions on the capital and financial account of the balance of payments, the free movement of capital for the purpose of liberalisation of investments and other transactions as provided for in Chapter 8.

2. The Parties shall consult each other with a view to facilitating the movement of capital between them in order to promote trade and investment.

[1] For the purposes of this Chapter, "freely convertible currency" means a currency that can be freely exchanged against currencies that are widely traded in international foreign exchange markets and widely used in international transactions. For greater certainty, currencies that are widely traded in international foreign exchange markets and widely used in international transactions include freely usable currencies as designated by the IMF in accordance with the Articles of Agreement of the International Monetary Fund.
