ARTICLE 20.5

Dispute settlement

The provisions of this Chapter shall not be subject to dispute settlement under Chapter 22.

CHAPTER 21

TRADE AND WOMEN'S ECONOMIC EMPOWERMENT

ARTICLE 21.1

Women and the economy

1. The Parties recognise the importance of enhancing opportunities for women within their territories, including workers and business owners, to participate equitably in the domestic and global economy.

2. The Parties further recognise the benefit of sharing their diverse experiences in designing, implementing and strengthening programmes to reduce the systemic barriers which may exist for women in international trade and which prevent them from participating equitably in the domestic and global economy.

ARTICLE 21.2

Cooperation activities

The Parties shall consider undertaking cooperation activities aimed at enhancing the ability of women, including workers and business owners, to fully access and benefit from the opportunities created by this Agreement. These activities may include providing advice or training, and exchanging information and experience on:

(a) programmes aimed at improving the access of women to markets, technology and financing;

(b) development of women's leadership and business networks;
