(d) upon request, coordination in enforcement actions between or among Parties in relation to the same or related anti-competitive activities.

Article 13.5: Confidentiality of Information

1. This Chapter shall not require the sharing of information by a Party, which is contrary to that Party's laws, regulations, and important interests.

2. Where a Party requests confidential information under this Chapter, the requesting Party shall notify the requested Party of:

   (a) the purpose of the request;

   (b) the intended use of the requested information; and

   (c) any laws or regulations of the requesting Party that may affect the confidentiality of information or require the use of the information for purposes not agreed upon by the requested Party.

3. The sharing of confidential information between any of the Parties and the use of such information shall be based on terms and conditions agreed by the Parties concerned.

4. If information shared under this Chapter is shared on a confidential basis, then, except to comply with its laws and regulations, the Party receiving the information shall:

   (a) maintain the confidentiality of the information received;

   (b) use the information received only for the purpose disclosed at the time of the request, unless otherwise authorised by the Party providing the information;

   (c) not use the information received as evidence in criminal proceedings carried out by a court or a judge unless, on request of the Party receiving the information, such information was provided for such use in criminal proceedings through diplomatic channels or other channels established in accordance with the laws and regulations of the Parties concerned;

   (d) not disclose the information received to any other authority, entity, or person not authorised by the Party providing the information; and

   (e) comply with any other conditions required by the Party providing the information.

Article 13.6: Technical Cooperation and Capacity Building

The Parties agree that it is in their common interest to work together, multilaterally or bilaterally, on technical cooperation activities to build necessary capacities to strengthen competition policy development and competition law enforcement, taking into account the availability of resources of the Parties. Technical cooperation activities may include:

   (a) sharing of relevant experiences and non-confidential information on the development and implementation of competition law and policy;

   (b) the exchange of consultants and experts on competition law and policy;

   (c) the exchange of officials of competition authorities for training purposes;

   (d) participation of officials of competition authorities in advocacy programmes; and

   (e) other activities as agreed by the Parties.

Article 13.7 Consumer Protection

1. The Parties recognise the importance of consumer protection law and the enforcement of such law as well as cooperation among the Parties on matters related to consumer protection in order to achieve the objectives of this Chapter.

2. Each Party shall adopt or maintain laws or regulations to proscribe the use in trade of misleading practices, or false or misleading descriptions.

3. Each Party also recognises the importance of improving awareness of, and access to, consumer redress mechanisms.
