CHINA'S MOST-FAVOURED-NATION TREATMENT SECTORAL COVERAGE APPENDIX

This Appendix sets out China's commitments in accordance with subparagraph 1(b) of Article 8.6 (Most-Favoured-Nation Treatment).

I. Horizontal Limitations

In terms of Most-Favoured-Nation (MFN) Treatment commitments pursuant to Article 8.6 (Most-Favoured-Nation Treatment), the following rights are reserved by China:

(a) For China, the term "non-Party" under Article 8.6 (Most-Favoured-Nation Treatment) shall not include the following WTO Members within the meaning of the WTO Agreement: Hong Kong, China; Macao, China; and Separate Customs Territory of Taiwan, Penghu, Kinmen and Matsu (Chinese Taipei).

(b) China reserves the right to adopt or maintain any measure that accords more favourable treatment to any service supplier under any bilateral or multilateral international agreement in force or signed prior to the date of entry into force of this Agreement[7].

(c) China reserves the right to adopt or maintain any measure that accords more favourable treatment to any service supplier under any bilateral or multilateral international agreement in force or signed involving aviation, fisheries or maritime matters including salvage.

(d) China reserves the right to confer or accord advantages to adjacent countries in order to facilitate exchanges limited to contiguous frontier zones of services that are both locally produced or consumed.

(e) China reserves the right to adopt or maintain any measure with respect to the supply of service by presence of natural persons.

(f) China reserves rights to adopt or maintain any measure it considers necessary to protect its essential security interests to another Party, including screening of investments, if that Party reserves right to adopt or maintain a measure it considers necessary to protect its security.
