(b) Subject to paragraph 1 of this Article, where any person who is engaged in government employment for Sweden is sent to work as part of that employment in the territory of Japan, that person shall, with respect to that employment, be subject only to the legislation of Sweden as if that person were working in the territory of Sweden.

Article 10
Exceptions to Articles 6 to 9

At the request of an employee and an employer or a self-employed person, the competent authorities or the competent institutions of both Contracting States may agree to grant an exception to Articles 6 to 9 in the interest of particular persons or categories of persons, provided that such persons or categories of persons shall be subject to the legislation of one of the Contracting States.

Article 11
Spouse and Children coming with the person who works

1. (a) The spouse or children under the age of 18 of a person coming with the person who works in the territory of Japan and who is subject to the legislation of Sweden in accordance with Article 7, paragraph 2(b) of Article 9 or Article 10, shall be subject to the legislation of Sweden unless they are themselves employed or self-employed in the territory of Japan.

(b) While a person works in the territory of Japan and is subject to the legislation of Sweden in accordance with Article 7, paragraph 2(b) of Article 9 or Article 10, the spouse or children coming with that person shall be exempted from the legislation of Japan concerning the Japanese pension system specified in paragraph 1(a)(i) of Article 2, provided that the requirements specified in the legislation of Japan concerning the enforcement of the agreements on social security are fulfilled. However, when those spouse or children so request, the foregoing shall not apply.

2. The spouse or children coming with the person who works in the territory of Sweden and who is subject to the legislation of Japan in accordance with Article 7, paragraph 2(a) of Article 9 or Article 10, shall not be subject to the legislation of Sweden unless they are themselves employed or self-employed in the territory of Sweden.

Article 12
Compulsory Coverage

Articles 6 to 8, paragraph 2 of Article 9 and Article 11 shall apply only to compulsory coverage under the legislation of each Contracting State.

PART III
PROVISIONS CONCERNING BENEFITS

Chapter 1
Common Provision

Article 13
Totalization

Where a person does not have sufficient periods of coverage to fulfill the requirement for entitlement to benefits under the legislation of a Contracting State, the competent institution of that Contracting State shall take into account, for the purpose of establishing entitlement to those benefits, the periods of coverage completed under the legislation of the other Contracting State insofar as they do not coincide with the periods of coverage completed under the legislation of the first Contracting State.

However, in taking into account the periods of coverage under the legislation of the other Contracting State, the periods of coverage which are credited under the legislation of that Contracting State solely on the basis of residence in the territory of that Contracting State shall not be taken into account.

Chapter 2
Provisions concerning Japanese Benefits

Article 14
Special Provisions concerning Totalization

1. Article 13 shall not apply to lump-sum payments under the Japanese pension systems specified in paragraph 1(a) of Article 2 on account of death or withdrawal.
