(a) exemption from taxation on the salaries and emoluments derived in respect of an employment or other activity that is exercised in Japan for non-commercial activities connected with the Exhibition of the BIE;

(b) the right to import free of customs duties their furniture and personal effects, including one motor vehicle each, at the time of first taking up their post in Japan, in accordance with customs laws and regulations of Japan; and

(c) exemption from all direct taxes relating to the vehicle referred to in subparagraph (b) of this paragraph.

2. The provisions of paragraph 1 of this Article shall not apply to the representatives of the BIE who are nationals of, or permanently resident in, Japan.

Article 10

1. The staff of the Offices of the Section Commissioners-General, the representatives of the BIE and their dependants who hold a valid driving licence issued by a Prefectural Public Safety Commission of Japan may drive motor vehicles in Japan with that licence without any further obligation.

2. The staff of the Offices of the Section Commissioners-General, the representatives of the BIE and their dependants who hold a valid driving licence conforming to the model contained in Annex 9 or Annex 10 of the Convention on Road Traffic, adopted at Geneva on 19 September 1949, may drive motor vehicles in Japan with that licence for a period not exceeding twelve months following their arrival in Japan.

3. The staff of the Offices of the Section Commissioners-General, the representatives of the BIE and their dependants who hold a valid driving licence issued by a foreign country or region which does not issue a driving licence referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article, and which has a driving licence system recognised as being at the same level as that of Japan as stipulated by the laws and regulations of Japan, may drive motor vehicles in Japan with that licence without any further obligation for a period not exceeding twelve months following their arrival in Japan, provided that such licence is accompanied by a translation created by the organisations stipulated by the laws and regulations of Japan.

Article 11

1. The staff of the Offices of the Section Commissioners-General and the representatives of the BIE who visit Japan for the purpose of the Exhibition and are not nationals of, or permanently resident in, Japan shall not be required to participate in any social security scheme established by the laws and regulations of Japan. The Offices of the Section Commissioners-General and the BIE shall be exempt from all compulsory contributions to any social security scheme established by the laws and regulations of Japan for these staff of the Offices of the Section Commissioners-General and representatives of the BIE.

2. In case that the staff of the Offices of the Section Commissioners-General and the representatives of the BIE are not required to participate in any social security scheme established by the laws and regulations of Japan in accordance with paragraph 1 of this Article, their accompanying dependants who are not nationals of, or permanently resident in, Japan shall also not be required to participate in such social security scheme, except for employment insurance and workers' accident compensation insurance.

Article 12

The dependants of the staff of the Offices of the Section Commissioners-General shall be allowed to enroll in public elementary schools and junior high schools in Japan in accordance with their ages.

Article 13

A One Stop Shop will be established in Osaka, Japan to provide the Offices of the Section Commissioners-General and the BIE with all necessary information relating to privileges and immunities provided for in this Agreement and participation in the Exhibition. It will also provide facilities to the Offices of the Section Commissioners-General, the BIE and persons concerned for their applications relating to the privileges and immunities that must be submitted to the Japanese authorities.
