Description: Cross-Border Trade in Services

1. A licence is necessary to undertake exploration and production activities, both onshore and offshore. Mining and quarrying services may be provided to that licence holder without restriction.

2. This entry shall apply to production licences issued with respect to both onshore and offshore activities. To be a licensee, a company must have a place of business within the United Kingdom. That means:

(a) it has staff present in the United Kingdom;

(b) registration of a United Kingdom company at Companies House; or

(c) registration of a United Kingdom branch of a foreign company at Companies House.

3. To be a party to a licence that covers a producing field, a company must either:

(a) be registered as a United Kingdom company at Companies House; or

(b) carry on its business through a fixed place of business in the United Kingdom as defined in section 1141 of the Corporation Tax Act 2010 (which normally requires presence of staff).
